

CHAPTER 7.00 - BUSINESS SERVICES

Risk Management Insurance

7.21

- (1) The Superintendent shall recommend annually to the School Board insurance programs, including property, liability, worker's compensation and motor vehicle insurance that provide the best protection against loss to the District.
- (2) The Superintendent is authorized to approve claim payments against the School Board up to deductible amounts specified in District risk insurance programs approved by the School Board. Claims payments in favor of the School District shall be accepted by the Superintendent or designee and shall be reflected in appropriate budget amendments brought to the School Board for approval.
