6. CLOSING COMMENTS BY SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS AND SUPERINTENDENT
Mrs. Bev Slough wished Mrs. Barrera good fortune in the upcoming election. Mrs. Slough also would like to discuss replacing the representative for the Value Adjustment Board.

Mrs. Nicole Cubbedge stated that there would not be enough time before the next meeting and asked Board Members to submit names for consideration.

Mr. Patrick Canan stated that security is something we will always have to worry about. The school district will forever be on edge as people come in and out of the schools. There is a lot that is asked of our school staff and our hearts because of it. We will do whatever it takes to alleviate any added stress.

Mr. Bill Mignon recognizes the daunting task of the Mental Health Counselors. They have tremendous daily challenges.

Mrs. Kelly Barrera applauded the School Services Department for taking a proactive stand with security issues. The forward thinking provides positive avenues for parents and students.

Superintendent Forson thanked all the presenters for their hard work in preparing for today's workshop, and noted there is not much flexibility in the testing calendar. Mr. Forson thanked Mr. Kyle Dresback, Associate Superintendent, for Student Support Services and his team for the work they are doing regarding mental health.
