SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Kelly Barrera shared her appreciation for the engagement of the community and the input of staff. She expressed gratefulness in moving forward with high school "HHH" and appreciated the finance department's creativeness.

Bill Mignon thanked Superintendent Forson and staff for the hard work throughout this process.

Tommy Allen shared his appreciation for the staff's hard work.

Bev Slough visited Liberty Pines Academy August 24 and was pleased with their preparations for the safety and education of our students in this trying time.

Tim Forson thanked the district staff for the number of hours in planning they put in. During the past two weeks the school staff has been working tirelessly preparing for a great year. He shared his appreciation for the feedback from the community and understands we will need to make adjustments along the way.
