

SJCS Charter Application Addendum – Consultant Information

Please include as part of the application in the Addendums Section.

1. Does any paid or volunteer consultant participating in the development of this application have prior experience in the development, operation or management of a charter school?
 - a. What is his/her name?
 - b. What is/was the name of the charter school?
 - c. In what district is/was the charter school?
2. Has any individual involved in the current charter application submission for a charter school in St. Johns County been associated* with a charter school that has closed? (*Participated in the development, submission or defense of a charter school application)
 - a. What is his/her name
 - b. In what capacity was the individual involved?
 - c. What was the name of the charter school?
 - d. In what district was the charter school?
3. If you answered YES to number 2, what were the circumstances of the closure? Provide specific details such as voluntary, academic performance, financial viability.
4. Are any of the individuals involved in this application associated with a current charter school in operation?
 - a. What is his/her name?
 - b. In what capacity is/was the individual involved?
 - c. What is the name(s) of the charter school(s)?
 - d. In what district is the charter school?
5. Are any of the consultants (paid or volunteer) associated with this application part of a founding group, governing board, and/or management company for a charter school in academic or financial corrective action?
 - a. What is his/her name?
 - b. In what capacity was the individual involved?
 - c. What is the name(s) of the school(s)?
 - d. In what district is the charter school?
6. Additional pertinent information may be provided, up to one sheet

(Academic corrective action would be defined as having received a D or F on a State assessment or the point equivalent, or in the case of an SIR school, a rating of declining. Financial corrective action would be defined as meeting any of the criteria noted on Section 218, Florida Statutes).