

2021-22 Elementary Quarantine Help Guide

District Support

What should I expect of my school?

- Access to daily work for ELA, math, science, and social studies through an instructional packet or Schoology as determined with your school
- Access to online instructional resources
- Regular communication about instructional expectations
- Response to questions or requests for assistance
- Student is considered present when quarantined unless sick and unable to continue with their education.

What does my school expect of me?

- Complete daily work for ELA, math, science, and social studies through an instructional packet or Schoology
- Ask for assistance from the teacher or support personnel as needed
- Participate in teacher check-in through agreed upon mode: phone, email, Schoology, Zoom, Microsoft Teams

How do I access online instructional resources? Click the link below to instructions to access online instructional resources.

Student Directions to access Online Textbook

What additional online resources can I access for help? Click the link below, choose the grade level, and scroll to the active links to access activities.

Year-at-a-Glance Pacing Guide & Online Resources

Who can I call for assistance if school staff is not available?

ELA and Reading

Rebecca England, Ed.D., Elementary ELA Program Specialist, (904) 547-7548
rebecca.England@stjohns.k12.fl.us

Math

Andrea Dieckman, Elementary Math Program Specialist, (904) 547-7745 andrea.dieckman@stjohns.k12.fl.us

Science and Social Studies

Lacole Rudin, Elementary Science and Social Studies Program Specialist, (904) 547-7551
Lacole.Rudin@stjohns.k12.fl.us